Columbus Dispatch

Arrest of Counterfeiters.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—William Grover and Lewis Hasker, noted counterfeiters, were arrested last night in consequence of information received from the Chief of the Secret Service at Washington. They were in the act of coining counterfeit five cent. nickel pieces with a complete apparatus. Grover had just been released from prison after serving a term for counterfeiting beer stamps.

MT. VERNON.

Correspondence of THE DISPATCH.]

Mr. Vernon, January 6, 1880.
Lewis Curran, who was arrested for passing counterfeit money last Friday night, was taken before H. B. Curtis yesterday afternoon, and held in the sum of one thousand dollars for his offense. Mr. C. is the autocrat for the Government for this district, and such crimes as that of which young Curran stands accused, properly come before him. The money passed was nickels; they were tolerably well executed, and some of them were so fresh from the moulds that the edges had not been trimmed. The accused says he got them of Smythe, of Cardington, and as Smythe is a bad one, we are not disposed to doubt him on that point. When arrested he began throwing his nickels away, but they were afterwards picked up, and eighteen or twenty were found on his person.
